

The Yeerongpilly Cup

The Yeerongpilly Cup is a men's amateur open gross single stroke event.

First held in 1927, the event was initially a 36 hole one-day event among amateurs and professionals with the Cup and 10 pounds prize money presented by the then President, Edward Macartney (1921-1929)

At its peak the Yeerongpilly Cup was a lead-in event for professionals to play prior to the Queensland Open. It was reduced to an 18-hole event in 1958, however and peaked at 132 players in 1961. Prize money at times was as high as $1,000. In 1978 the Yeerongpilly Cup became an open event for amateurs only.
